

“I’m a justice writer, truth bearer, and a woman who desires to see you persevere. It’s time for radical rebirth and rebranding of the soul. God’s desire is for all to believe, be known, belong, and be loved through the redeeming love of Christ.”

BELIEVE. BELONG. BE LOVED. --- The primal yearning of every one of us is to have someone and something to believe in, for someone to believe in us, to be seen and known, treasured, protected, and loved. This is what compels award-winning author and speaker, CHERIE DENNA, to proclaim the wonders of God’s love. In 2009, Cherie answered the call to ministry. This led to writing grants for nonprofits advocating against injustice and coming alongside women in recovery. She would soon plant Thunder Road Biker Church in northern California. For over twelve years, Cherie has served in women’s ministry in various leadership positions. Her message is shared with raw transparency as she recalls her life before Christ and her journey as a devoted follower of Jesus. Her belief is that justice and belonging are the plight of the outcast soul, and it is from this very place we are perfectly positioned to encounter radical rebirth, rescue, renewal, and reformation, what she testifies to as the rebranding of the soul.

Cherie’s recent contribution to, She Writes for Him: Stories of Living Hope, is a personal account of persevering through a pandemic and the discovery that God was always her protector and rescuer, long before she knew Him. Stories of Living Hope received the 2021 Advanced Writers and Speakers Association Golden Scroll Third Place Award for Inspirational Gift Book.

“When Satan’s demons attempt to influence our emotions, we have a choice to either fall prey to their tactics or be filled with encouragement through the Word of God.” – Cherie Denna, Behind the Mask

Biker Blood: An Outcast’s Quest for Justice and Belonging

A True Story Coming Summer 2022

When you know you don’t belong in the life you’re living, where do you turn? In this memoir that reads more like a novel, Cherie leads the reader into the thunderous and treacherous life of organized crime and the outlaw biker culture. This spiritual autobiography shows how the righteous justice of God and His redeeming love pursues her into the depths of darkness and despair, claiming her as His own.

“It is my honor to share with any audience longing for the comfort and peace that comes with the discovery of God’s righteous justice and true belonging. As doors open to share the good news, I believe I speak to an audience of one and He takes over from there.”

The intensity of Cherie’s journey of faith and power behind the divine intervention she conveys in her writing is brought to the platform with authenticity and compassionate connection with her audience. If you would like to inquire about having her speak at your church, retreat, conference, or event as a keynote or workshop presenter, please complete the form at <https://cheriedenna.com/invite-cherie-to-speak/>.

Speaking Endorsements

“If you want a joy-filled, encouraging speaker or emcee, consider Cherie Denna. At a recent women’s retreat, at which she planned and emceed at Mission Springs Camp & Conference Center in northern California, she warmly greeted all the women and even light-heartedly navigated the evening session when the power went out. Cherie is unpretentious yet professional. I highly recommend her!”

- Janet McHenry, award-winning speaker, best-selling author of 24 books including Prayerwalk, and AWSA Certified Coach (Advanced Writers and Speakers Association)

“A special joy was the hearing of the transformation by Jesus of the platform leader and her sister through the ministry of retreat, the reason for any of this: That we become followers of Christ and are led to become more fully devoted disciples.”

- Lydia Carroll, Retreat Attendee

CHERIE DENNA is a writer and speaker whose mission is to help others discover true belonging in Christ. Her writing includes several collaborations and online devotionals including Arise Daily (AWSA) and The Evangelical Covenant Church, Pacific Southwest Conference Women’s Ministries website. Her memoir, Biker Blood: An Outcast’s Quest for Justice and Belonging, will release summer 2022.

When she is not writing or speaking, Cherie is likely off with her purpose mate in their house on wheels, soaking in seahabilitation on the seashore, or sharing life with family and friends in northern California.

CHERIE’S KEYNOTE AND WORKSHOP TOPICS INCLUDE:

Justice in an Unjust World (single or multiple sessions)

Discover how to recognize God’s righteous justice in your own life and to trust God’s sovereignty in an unjust world.

Devotion and Allegiance (single or multiple sessions)

Mary Magdalene is said to be the most devoted of all the disciples. We’ll explore the idea of living a life of devotion in our relationship with the Lord and reflect on our own allegiance.

Belonging (single or multiple sessions)

We tend to sacrifice pieces of ourselves at the altar of belonging. Discover in seven steps how God will take you to a place you’ve never been but where you’ve always belonged.

Check out more of Cherie’s keynote and workshop topics at cheriedenna.com

